The Queen arrives!

"I wonder what the rich are doing?"

"I think I'll pick her . . . or maybe her . . ."

"Hear ye, hear ye!"

"I'm telling you, I'm not insane!"

Jennifer and Kristen enjoy the good life.

"Lord, what fools these mortals be!"

"Once upon a time, there were three little pigs..."

I N M E M O R Y O F K E C I A

My inner thoughts are wandering
 To the girl who lies asleep
 Waiting for the day when she'll be gone.
 My memories are pondering
 All the times that we had shared
 And it hurts to think that now
 She sleeps alone.
 And I remember how she had
 A sparkle in her eye
 A love that she could give you
 That money couldn't buy
 And the energy that filled her soul
 You swore would never die...
 Would never die.
 But now she takes a final bow
 As the curtain falls
 No more grand finales, no more curtain calls.
 And now the sun is setting as she sails away
 How do you say goodbye to the girl you swore would never die?

A group of approximately 15 students, mostly young women, are posed for a group photograph outdoors. They are arranged in two rows. The front row consists of about 10 students, mostly wearing blue and white striped shirts, each holding an acoustic guitar. The back row has about 5 students, some in white shirts and others in blue and white striped shirts. They are standing in front of a light-colored wall with some foliage visible on the left. The overall image quality is low, with significant digital artifacts and a grainy texture.

A group of approximately 20 students and faculty members are posing for a group photo in front of a light-colored building. In the foreground, a large, dark banner with white text reads "SAN DIEGO HIGH SCHOOL YEMEN". The students are dressed in a variety of casual clothing, including t-shirts, jeans, and sweaters. Some are standing, while others are sitting or kneeling in the front rows. The background shows a building with a flat roof and some trees to the left. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal group portrait.

A list of the following items is given in the following table. The first column gives the name of the item, the second column gives the date of the item, the third column gives the name of the person who gave the item, and the fourth column gives the name of the person who received the item.

New Friends and Old Friends

What a great year it has been!
 I have made many new friends
 and old friends have come back.
 I have learned a lot about myself
 and the world around me.
 I have grown up a lot in the last year and I am proud of myself.

CONTESTS OF PHYSICAL SKILL

A black and white photograph of a group of men in military uniforms standing in front of a building with a balcony. The men are arranged in several rows, and many have identification numbers on their chests. The building has a balcony with a railing. The image is grainy and has a high-contrast, almost stencil-like appearance.

The cavers are back! After several below par years the 1983 cavers produced an excellent 3-4 and 1 season. In league play they finished with a 3-1 and 1 record, tying for second place with Crawford in the strong central league. Primarily, a ball control team which highlighted a running offense augmented by short accurate passes. The cavers averaged over four yards per play.

Eleven cavers were selected for all-league honors. First team: Victor Gonzalez, offensive line; Deangelo Mitchell, receiver; Kenny Martin, runningback; Kevin Webb, defensive back; Dwayne Cumberland, linebacker. Second team: Glendon Knott, offensive line; Glen Arnold, defensive line. Honorable mention: Bob Utam, Lester Brown, Ruben Hueso, and Charlie Davis.

The 1983 Caver gridmen opened up the season with a 19-3 victory in the friendship bowl against Serra, and ended up the season with an exciting homecoming win over arch rival Hoover, 21-12.

Scholar — Leader

ATHLETE

Kevin Webb —

A Central League Scholar from San Diego High School is both prominent in athletics and academics. During his high school career he has made it as the all-League defensive back and has also been selected to participate in the Los Angeles Times All-C I F team. As a great asset to his team Kevin acted as a free safety, was his teams MVP on defense and served as co-captain, in addition to leading the team in tackles and assists. Kevin is not merely gifted with physical talent, he is also gifted with a bright alert mind, he has remained on the honor roll for six of seven semesters, maintained a 3.22 grade point average and lettered two years. While accomplishing all of this he has managed to work six hours a day. He is a member of the U. S. Academic Academy and won his class trigonometry award. The son of Mrs. Shirley Webb of San Diego plans to attend U. C. Berkely and become an architect. Coach Scotty Harris calls him "extremely coachable."

PRIN. PA. De Rube Amparén

To the Class of 1981

There are some events that are natural bench marks of our lives. Graduating from high school is certainly one of these memorable occasions. Moreover, it is appropriate that the theme Renaissance, was chosen to commemorate this year's annual.

The students who are graduating this year from the "New Castle" will not require any stimulus to successfully meet the challenge of college, full time work, marriage or whatever may lie ahead. However, those of us who remain must constantly revive the renaissance that lies within each of us to constantly perform at our best.

It may appear difficult to comprehend leaving San Diego High School. All the friends and teachers who have been part of your daily routine for the past three years. However, your leaving is an indication of your successful completion of high school and that you have acquired the competence to take the next step toward the rest of your life.

Good Luck, and may you prove George Orwell wrong.
